

I'LL BE DAMNED
IF I LET YOU PUT THAT MARK
ON ME!

I'LL BE DAMNED IF I
LET YOU PUT THAT MARK ON MY HAND!

Truer words were never spoken. The soon to be revealed Antichrist is a horrible expression of evil. The people will at first lift him to power as he promises peace, brotherhood and financial stability. But after a few successes and a short period of relative calm, he demands that everyone on the planet worship him. It will be required that every world citizen disavow all other gods or items of worship and take the mark that the Bible refers to as "The Mark of the Beast." It may not be called that at all but something more acceptable, like—The One World Transaction Seal, or World Citizen Endicia. We can only guess what it will be called, but the venomous result for anyone taking the mark is permanent, irrevocable rejection by the God of Creation—DAMNATION. The Beast gets the name from Daniel's vision of the final kingdom of man's rule of the world—the fourth beast. Daniel chapter seven. His reign will mark a "time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation." Chapter 12:1

We can't imagine such a time, as many generations alive today have lived lives of abundance and blessing.

As prosperity and ease of living has been the way, adherence to God's commandments and precepts have been largely disregarded. Sin has paved the way for the acceptance of the Man of Sin. It is time for a showdown between the powers of good and evil—once and for all.

One troublesome thing is that many churches have preached a message of Pre-Tribulation Rapture, that says Christians won't be troubled with the decision of the "Mark," because they believe they won't be here. Troublesome—because they, in fact, will be the most vulnerable to the Beast's lie because they weren't prepared for it. Many today are realizing that is not the case at all. When the Antichrist comes to power, there will be no option. You either worship the Antichrist and wear his brand or you can no longer buy or sell anything and will face starvation and severe discrimination at the hands of "proper world citizens." It's a Catch-22, a literal damned if you do or dead if you don't. The only hope we have is through the Blood of Jesus who is the real Christ. If we claim His Blood as spilled for us that we might be Saved, then we can gloriously conquer death even though we might die once. If we reject the Blood that brings Salvation, then Satan is our God as we wear his brand and then all hope is lost. There is no exemption for our soul if we wear the brand on our right hand or forehead.

Most people won't be able to withstand the fear, hunger, accusation and delusion put on them once the Antichrist makes his claim. They will cave in and be damned. Strength from the Word of God, Salvation by the Savior, and power from the Holy Spirit of God will be your only stay. This message is dated because we believe the world is nearly in the perfect position for him to be revealed. Do not gamble on your ability to survive this horrible evil. Claim now the Salvation Jesus offers and begin building your spirit-person because the days are short and night is approaching.
