

New Year's Wishes

This shiny bright new year I wish you faith:
Faith that this world cannot dampen or cool,
Faith in your dreams when the facts overrule,
Faith in the Word, though some folks call you "fool",
I wish you faith for the coming new year.

This shiny bright new year I wish you peace:
Peace that the world's cares cannot nullify,
Peace that is unswayed though all goes awry,
Peace that this world cannot beg, steal, or buy,
I wish you peace for this coming new year.

This shiny bright new year I wish you joy:
Joy that is untouched by earth's trials and fears,
Joy that is constant when sorrow appears,
Joy that is able to smile through its tears,
I wish you joy for the coming new year.

(over)

This shiny bright new year I wish you love:
Love that is steadfast, a love to abide,
Love that's a refuge in which you can hide,
Love unconditional, unqualified,
I wish you love for the coming new year.

This coming new year I wish you someone:
One who's the source of all mentioned above,
One who brings faith on the wings of a dove,
One who's synonymous with peace, joy, and love,
I wish you Jesus this coming new year.
