OUR PRAYERS CAN SAVE AMERICA!

In 1963 Madalyn Murray O'Hair successfully changed the course of events for our country. We are still reaping the consequences of her vicious campaign to remove prayer from the public schools of America. Children who were taught long ago to open their days in thanksgiving and worship of our Heavenly Father are now threatened with expulsion at the sight of a Bible with their school books.

Atheists and Agnostics are fighting on every hand to change a generation of children. They state that there is no absolute right and wrong. Values according to them must be decided by the situation. The Bible they say is outdated and must be discarded or at best be thought of as fiction.

Our nation today has been great because it was founded by men and women who feared God and who believed in prayer. But today, prayer has been replaced by materialism, selfishness, greed, and a mistaken notion that our private and national lives can be run without God.

Today our American way of life is threatened from within and from all sides. The dangers facing our country and the entire world are so great that they cannot be taken lightly.

Yes, the good news is that prayer can save America! "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land" (II Chronicles 7:14). But we cannot really lay hold upon a Holy God until we have come to know Him as our Father. So that we might know Him, the loving Father sent His Son to be our Saviour: "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life . . . As many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his Name" (John 3:16; 1:12).

Mothers, fathers, aunts, uncles, grandmas and grandpas; we must turn back to the God of the Bible. He is able to deliver us as we seek His face and turn from our wicked ways. We must put all else aside and kneel humbly before our God and then will He heal our land.

Charles Stanley, evangelist and teacher, attributes his salvation to his own mother who regularly prayed for him. No matter what time of night he came in she knelt at the side of his bed and asked God to protect and guide him. You, too, can be that one to stand up for righteousness in the place where God has called you to serve Him. Dare to put His Word into practice. “Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest” (Joshua 1:9).
