

Your Life
Can Change
Forever
In An Instant

...with a phone call in the middle of the night, a letter, a fall, an accident, or a sudden “chance” meeting.

You can be comfortable in your lifestyle, whatever it may be, one minute and the very next minute your whole life can be changed forever, for the better or the worse.

You can be poor and struggling one minute and win a million dollars in a contest the next minute. Wouldn't THAT be a nice change!

Or you could just be going about your every day routine at home or work in one minute and drop dead of a heart attack or a massive stroke the next minute. Now THAT would really be a change!

But, would it be a change for the better or for the worse for you?

None of us knows how long we will live. None of us has the promise of our very next breath or our next heartbeat.

All of us, no matter what our age or health, NEED to be prepared to enter eternity at any time, there to stand before a Holy and Perfect God.

“Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time and then vanisheth away”

(James 4:14).

“And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment” (Hebrews 9:27). ONCE is enough, isn't it?

And just how will you be judged then? What will you say to God when He asks you why He should let you into Heaven?

Will you tell Him what a good person you've been, at least MOST of the time?

But the Bible says that we “all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God” (Romans 3:23), and “If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us” (1 John 1:8).

Will you remind Him how you went to church at Easter and Christmas, or maybe even more often than that?

The Bible warns us, “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast” (Ephesians 2:8,9).

Will you then hear those dreaded words: “...I never knew you: depart from me...” (Matthew 7:23).

Or will you honestly be able to say that you have accepted Jesus as your very own personal Lord and Saviour and that He has paid your way into Heaven?

Jesus said in John 14:6: “I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man” (or woman or boy or girl) “cometh unto the Father, but by me.”

If you would like to be able to say that, then the first thing you need to do is pray a simple prayer like this one, just be sure you really mean it with all your heart...

Dear God, I admit that I'm a sinner and I am so sorry for all my sins. Please forgive me. I now turn away from those sins and ask You to come into my heart, be my Lord and Saviour, and take me to Heaven when I die. In Jesus' Name, amen.

If you prayed sincerely, then God assures you in Romans 10:13 that “whosoever” (YOU) “shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

Please find a good Bible believing church so you can learn more about God and what He has planned for you.
